Dear Professor [Editor Name] (Editor, Journal Name):

Thank you very much for your kind consideration of our manuscript entitled “Your manuscript title” [Ref.: Manuscript Number].

We would like to resubmit our revised manuscript, along with a response letter to the respected reviewer, to Journal Name. We are grateful to you and the respected reviewer for the constructive and insightful comments, which have significantly improved the clarity, presentation, and quality of our manuscript. In the revised version, we have addressed all the points raised by the respected reviewer carefully and point by point. We have also highlighted all these changes in blue for the convenience of the respected reviewer. We believe that the revised manuscript addresses all concerns raised during the review process and meets the publication standards of Journal Name.

We would like to again sincerely appreciate your kind consideration.

Yours sincerely,
